

Teen Talk & Parent Cafe

Teens will be provided with strategies to advocate for themselves at home, at school and in the community.

In a separate session, held concurrently, parents will talk about how to support a child's self advocacy.

In this session:

- Teens will explore what it means to them to have a disability.
- Parents will have the opportunity to share what they have told their teens about having a disability.

Saturday, April 13 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

WarmLine Clubhouse
2424 Castro Way, Sacramento

This training is FREE, but registration is required.

Please register at <http://bit.ly/2X5ZvYo>.

This workshop is for teens 14-18 years old and their parents.

Call 916-455-9500/844-455-9517 for more information.

Each family will receive a gas card and WarmLine tote bag.